

POG

KIT ROBINSON
SUE CARNAHAN

poetry in action

OCT 24

7PM

$5 or $3 students

the drawing studio tucson
33 s. 6th ave

KIT ROBINSON is celebrating the publication of his new book The Messianic Trees: Selected Poems, 1976-2003 (Adventures in Poetry, 2009). A co-author of The Grand Piano: An Experiment in Collective Autobiography, San Francisco, 1975-1980 (Mode A, ongoing), he is also the author of 9:45 (The Post Apollo Press, 2003), The Crave (Atelos, 2002) and Democracy Boulevard (Roof, 1998). Robinson lives in Berkeley, California, where he works as a communications consultant in the information technology industry and plays the Cuban tres guitar in local sexteto.

SUE CARNAHAN lives & writes in southeast Arizona. She holds an MFA in Fine Arts and a Masters in Science from the University of Arizona. Her poems have appeared in 6x6, Word For/ Word, can we have our ball back? and elsewhere. Her book Auto Repair won the Weldon Kees Award and was published by The Backwaters Press. She works as a speech-language pathologist.

for further information: www.gopog.org, pog@gopog.org, 520-615-7803